NARRATIVE:

Oscar Quezada is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, battery on a specific person, domestic violence with priors, domestic violence after a battery, multiple cases of contempt of court and disturbing the peace. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 2 year term for domestic violence with priors. Quezada was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 19, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Quezada qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense level for domestic violence with priors is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
